

How can we make informed and educated decisions without an unbiased media that gives us information, not "the party line?" As it is, the national media, controlled by conservatives like Rupert Murdoch, has far too much power over what we see and hear in news casts.

This will be made even worse by removing laws that prevent monopolization of the media. Please vote against media deregulation.